

ORDINARY PEOPLE, EXTRAORDINARY LIVES

Mission Behaviors in the New Jersey Synod

This matrix prescribes no priority or sequence among the demonstrated mission behaviors

	Accompanying Jesus	Introducing Jesus	Following Jesus	Serving Jesus
Bishop and Pastors Vision caster. Mission interpreter. Builders of capacity.	Missionary and Colleague	Evangelist and Prophet	Teacher and Shepherd	Servant and Advocate
Congregation Home and street level engagement	Mission Support Sharing at a minimum of 10% World Hunger, LDR, LWR Missionary Sponsorship Mission Partners Local ecumenical association.	Incarnational Faith sharing Engaging relationships Introduction, witness and hospitality Baptizing Advocacy and public witness Hopeful sense of history	Make and care for disciples Prayer Holy Conversation Bible study, Generosity, Worship Humility, and readiness to sacrifice Leadership	Feed, clothe, shelter Advocate justice , peace , human dignity, wholeness and community improvement Care of creation Network with community partners Vocation
Synod Challenge Support Communicate	ELCA Churchwide Mission Support at 50% Ministry Partners, Ecumenical and global partners	New mission development Congregation Redevelopment Mission Initiatives	Supporting and equipping for congregational development of faith practices Best Practices, Multi-directional communication	Church vocational development

NEW JERSEY SYNOD CORE VALUES

Faithfulness	Generosity
Respect	Change
Diversity	Interdependence