

Joining God, Remaking Church, Changing the World

Questions

Learn: The Problem and the Opportunity

- What challenges does your congregation face?
- What has your congregation tried in the past? What were the results?
- What are some things God calls us to do to share the Gospel?
- How do you engage in God's mission in your everyday life?
- Where have you seen God at work in your everyday life lately?

Think: Listening and Discerning

- Roxborough picks Luke 10:1-12 as his study passage. What are some Bible studies about mission you think would be worth "dwelling in?"
- What experience do you have interacting with your church's neighborhood?
- How easy is it to meet people in your church's neighborhood? What are some challenges?
- What does discernment mean to you?
- What are some strategies you use to "connect to God"?
- What does it mean to listen to the Holy Spirit?

Do: Testing, Reflecting, Deciding

- Why is it important to try new things?
- What scares you about doing something new?
- What groups in your congregation can be catalysts for innovation? Which ones might oppose it?
- How might reflecting be different than evaluating what worked and didn't work?
- Why does reflection help with innovation?
- How do you create space for reflection after trying new things?
-
- Who are the leaders in your church that can help with deciding? How does your church communicate with itself? How best do you get the word out?
- How do you involve more members of your congregation with trying new things?