

EMU Bulletin Insert:

Generosity and Working for Justice

Today John tells the crowd to be generous, "Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise."

Then he goes on and tells people with ethically dubious jobs to work in an ethically upright way.

- ✚ What do you think the connection is there?
- ✚ How could working in a just way also provide for those without coats or food?
- ✚ What roles and relationships do you have that could be fruitful in the way John the Baptist calls people to be fruitful?

God of hope, you call us home from the exile of selfish oppression to the freedom of justice, the balm of healing, and the joy of sharing. Make us strong to join you in your holy work, as friends of strangers and victims, companions of those whom others shun, and as the happiness of those whose hearts are broken. We make our prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
