Reformation: Then and Now

October 26 - November 5, 2026

Our Lutheran witness in the world is more vital than ever before. Join the New Jersey Synod on an 11-day pilgrimage to explore our Reformation roots in the land of Luther and to reflect on how our Lutheran heritage equips us for the church's mission today. We will remember our baptisms in Saints Peter and Paul Church in Eisleben, where Martin Luther himself was baptized. Rostered leaders can remember our ordination vows at the cathedral in Erfurt where Luther was ordained. Together we will give thanks for God's Word in our lives as we visit the Wartburg Castle, where Luther translated the New Testament from Greek into German so that ordinary people could read it. We'll spend Reformation Day in Wittenberg, where it all began with Luther's posting of the 95 Theses in 1517. We'll also visit Torgau, where Katie Luther is buried, and Leipzig, where Johann Sebastian Bach spent most of his career as a church musician. We will learn about the work of the ELCA Wittenberg Center, where a pastor of our Synod, the Rev. Bridget Gautieri, serves as Executive Director.

We'll be accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Kathryn "Kit" Kleinhans, who will help us think deeply about the implications of this history. The sixteenth century reformers stood up for their understanding of the Gospel in the face of both political and religious opposition. In the twentieth century, Lutherans in Germany faced the challenges of both the National Socialist party's efforts to control the church and the suppression of the church under postwar communism. Together we will ask that familiar question from Luther's Small Catechism - "What does this mean?" - as we consider how we are called to live our faith in an increasingly chaotic and divided world. The Rev. Dr. Kleinhans held the McCoy Family Distinguished Chair in Lutheran Heritage and Mission at Wartburg College, Waverly, Iowa, and recently retired as Dean of Trinity Lutheran Seminary at Capital University, Columbus, Ohio. She has led over a dozen travel seminars to this region of the world.

I hope you will come along for this pilgrimage of learning, connection, and a renewed appreciation for the ways our Lutheran theological foundations shape our faith today.

The Rev. Christa M. Compton, PhD
Bishop

Reformation: Then and Now

Eisenach - Erfurt - Buchenwald - Eisleben - Wittenberg - Leipzig - Berlin

Day 1: Monday, October 26, 2026: Leave the US

We leave the US individually for our overnight flight to Frankfurt, Germany.

Day 2: Tuesday, October 27, 2026: Arrive in Germany

Arrive in Frankfurt in the morning where we meet our bus and tour director. After everything is settled, we leave for Eisenach, where we check in at our hotel Thuringer Hof. Some free time in the afternoon to explore Eisenach on your own, relax and shake your jetlag. In the evening gather for a welcome dinner. D

Day 3: Wednesday, October 28, 2026: Eisenach

Join a city tour of Eisenach and take the beautiful trip up the mountain to the Wartburg Castle. After his excommunication Martin Luther was kidnapped by his prince and hid here for almost a year under the alias of "Junker Jorg." See the room where Luther lived and made his translation of the New Testament. Later visit the Bach House - experience what a typical home looked like in the 18th century, see an interesting collection of antique instruments and hear a demonstration on a variety of these pieces as well as the Lutherhouse. Return to our hotel for dinner and overnight. BD

Day 4: Thursday, October 29, 2026: Erfurt

Discover Erfurt this morning: Wealthy merchants founded Erfurt's university. When Luther studied here, the university was a center of humanist thought where church dogma was brought into question. We will visit St. Mary's Cathedral, where Luther was ordained. The stained glass windows, bronze candelabra, and Gloriosa bell were all here during Luther's time. We will enjoy a walk through the Augustinerkloster, where Luther celebrated his first mass and lived as a monk for six years. After lunch on your own, we travel to Buchenwald, the former concentration camp. A quarter of a million people were imprisoned here between 1937 and 1945. All of them suffered and 50,000 of them died. Among the prisoners were Lutheran pastors Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Paul Schneider, outspoken opponents of National Socialism. A private guided tour will allow us time for reflection and a service of reconciliation. Back to Eisenach for a free evening to discover the Thuringian cuisine on our own. No group dinner tonight. B

Day 5: Friday, October 30, 2026: Eisleben

This morning we drive to Eisleben. We have a guided tour of Eisleben: Luther's birth and death occurred here, his Bethlehem and Jerusalem. His home is typical of the Middle Ages. An exhibition interprets the spiritual environment of Luther's childhood. You can further understand the foundation of Luther's faith when you visit the Church of St. Peter and Paul, where Luther was baptized. The late medieval residence where Luther died is preserved nearby.

Our tour includes a stop at St. Andrews, where Luther gave his last four sermons. After lunch on our own, we continue to Wittenberg. A local guide will help us explore the city, where Martin Luther lived and taught for 36 years. The first part of the tour includes the City Church, where Luther preached thousands of times, and the Castle Church, where he posted his "95 Theses," thus sparking the Reformation. We check in at Colleg Wittenberg for the next four nights. In the evening, take part in the ELCA Reformation Day worship service in English. Dinner and overnight. BD

Day 6: Saturday, October 31, 2026: Reformation Day in Wittenberg

Wittenberg is alive with Renaissance spirit today as it celebrates more than 500 years of Lutheran heritage. Free day to choose among Reformation Day activities including the worship services in English, museum tours, food and activities typical of Luther's time. In the afternoon, meet Rev. Bridget Gautieri at a coffee and cake reception and a brief presentation of the ministry and programming of the center and her work. Option to attend a classical concert at the Town Church and dinner on own. Overnight in Wittenberg. B

Day 7: Sunday, November 1, 2026: All Saints Day Wittenberg

We join the City Church Congregation for Sunday Worship Service. Afterwards, meet for part two of our city tour. In 1883, the Prussian Crown Prince established the "Lutherhaus" as a museum, which archives more than 10,000 prints, 6,000 manuscripts, 2,000 coins and medals, and 14,000 illustrations. We explore the three-story museum, which displays only a fraction of its Reformation collection, the world's largest. The Reformer's living room, known as the "Lutherstube," is especially well preserved. In the afternoon, we visit Torgau. Take a tour of the city where, in 1544, the first palace and church were specifically built and consecrated under the auspices of a Protestant Prince. We will see this perfectly preserved Renaissance castle, its chapel and a special feat of engineering - the cantilevered spiral staircase. We continue to nearby St. Mary's Church, where Katharina von Bora, Luther's lively wife "Katie," is buried. Back to Wittenberg for some time to rest, dinner and overnight. BD

Day 8: Monday, November 2, 2026: Leipzig

In October 1989, the people of Leipzig first organized the demonstrations that brought hundreds of thousands into the streets for the "Peaceful Revolution." We will visit their rendezvous point at the Gothic (12th century) St. Nicholas Church and have a guided city walking tour which includes the 14th century St. Thomas Church, where Luther preached and where Bach served as cantor and choirmaster for 25 years. Afterwards free time for lunch on our own, meet with a local pastor who shares the story of how the Peaceful Revolution began. Tonight we will dine at the historic Auerbachs Keller, where, in a scene made famous by Goethe's Faust, Mephistopheles and Faust drank with the local students before flying away on a barrel. Return to Wittenberg. BD

Day 9: Tuesday, November 3, 2026: Berlin

We leave Wittenberg for Berlin. Our visit includes the bomb-damaged tower of Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church, Brandenburg Gate, Reichstag and "Unter den Linden", the government district. At noon, stop at Berlin Cathedral for a short organ devotion. After check in at our hotel, we gather again for dinner. BD

Day 10, Wednesday, November 4 2026: Berlin

We continue our tour of Berlin for a visit of the German resistance museum and St. Matthews church, where Dietrich Bonhoeffer was vicar. Our final stop is at Bernauer Strasse and the Wall documentation center. Free time in the afternoon to explore Berlin on your own. In the evening we meet for closing dinner at a local restaurant. BD

Day 11, Thursday, November 5, 2026: Auf Wiedersehen!

It is time to say goodbye. A morning transfer will bring you to Berlin's airport for your homebound flight. B

Terms and Conditions:

Any person reserving a Christian Tours Europe ("CTE") tour accepts the condition that CTE reserves the exclusive right to change tour itineraries, hotels, and other tour components whenever it is deemed necessary, although tours are planned and hotels are booked with all possible care. Published times in our itineraries are as accurate as possible and subject to change due to traffic, weather, mechanical and any other conditions that prevent CTE from operating under normal conditions. CTE cannot accept liability in the case of any passenger being denied boarding by any airline carrier due to carrier's over-booking of a flight, nor does it accept liability in the case of a cancelled or delayed flight. It shall be the passenger's responsibility solely to provide the means to join a missed tour that is already in progress. In the event that any dispute arises in which any party has a right to assert a claim, the exclusive jurisdiction for that claim shall be in a court of competent jurisdiction located in Wittenberg, Germany. The tour is operated exclusively under German law.

Responsibility:

Christian Tours Europe, Wittenberg, Germany acts only as an agent for all suppliers of service offered on this tour and does so upon the express condition and agreement that it shall not be liable for any injury, loss, damage, accident, delay, irregularity, or expense arising from strikes, war, weather, quarantines, sickness, government restrictions or regulations, from any act or omission of any individual, firm or corporation furnishing transportation, sightseeing, hotel accommodations, or any service in connection with such travel plan, or from any other cause whatsoever in connection therewith.

Transportation for one full-sized suitcase per person is included. For extra luggage, an additional $30.00 per bag will be assessed. There is no charge for an additional carry-on bag, which must fit under your seat or in the overhead rack and for which you will be responsible. Although every effort is made to handle passengers' luggage as carefully as possible, Christian Tours Europe cannot be responsible, assume liability, or accept claims for loss or damage to luggage due to breakage, theft, or fair wear and tear through hotel and group carrier handling.

Travel requirements and insurance:

For U.S. citizens, a valid passport is all that is required. Participants are responsible for all visa, health and passport regulations. Please check your medical insurance for overseas coverage. It is strongly recommended that participants purchase trip insurance to cover health, trip cancellation, and loss of baggage.

Gratuities:

All necessary tips, such as maid, doorman, and dining room tips for meals specified in the itinerary and the customary gratuity to escorts, drivers and step-on guides are included. Tips for beverages and drinks are not included; if you wish, additional appreciation may be extended on a voluntary and individual basis.

Physical activities:

There will be physical activities for you. You should be in good health, able to climb stairs (sometimes many) without assistance, and to walk at a modest pace for more than two miles at a time. Christian Tours Europe requires all handicapped or disabled clients requiring special assistance to be accompanied by a responsible paying adult and that Christian Tours Europe must be notified, in advance, of this special required assistance. It is also strongly encouraged to have your hearing and eyesight checked prior to the trip and purchase hearing assisted devices or eyeglasses as prescribed by your doctor.
